

OGDENSBURG, N. Y.

JOURNAL

E - 5,509

ADVANCE-NEWS

S - 5,161

APR 2 1962

STATINTL

Dorris E. Yarbrough Candidate For Board

Dorris Edward Yarbrough, Officer in Charge of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, is a candidate for the Ogdensburg Board of Education.

His formal education was obtained in Arkansas and he holds a Bachelor of Laws degree. He is co-author of articles which have appeared in the New York Law Journal, the Criminal Law Law Review, and other technical publications in the U.S. and abroad.

During his 27 years in the Department of Justice he has received numerous letters of commendation from Attorney Generals, U.S. Attorneys, Commissioners of Immigration, and from the Director of Security of the Central Intelligence Agency for assistance "over and above the call of duty".

Mr. Yarbrough is a member of the Presbyterian church, Masons, Rotary & Elks organization. He resides with his wife, Muriel, and daughter, Allison, at 710 Jay St. Allison is a junior at O.F.A. His other daughter, Marcia, graduated from O.F.A. and is a student, nurse at Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York City. His son, Don, was educated in N.Y. Public schools and graduated from Hofstra college with degree in English. He is also with the Immigration and Naturalization Service, presently at John F. Kennedy Airport.

DORRIS EDWARD YARBROUGH

As Officer in Charge Mr. Yarbrough is responsible for the inspection of aliens entering the U.S. at any port along the St. Lawrence River or at the three International Airports in this area. He is also responsible for the investigation of illegal activities relating to immigration from Oswego to Lake Champlain.

CPYRIGHT